

Trying To Pull A Fast One?

After two years of postponements Northwestern Mutual (NWM), the land owner of Reston National Golf Course, asked the Board of Zoning Appeals to have their case heard "ASAP!"

Why? No one really knows. But that has been "par for the course" from the start of this process.

- Could it be that NWM thought Rescue Reston would just go away?
- Could it be that NWM is trying to trump the Reston Master Plan update?

For decades reputable developers have approached the community first with their concepts...but not NWM. They hide behind big desks and closed doors!

Attend the BZA hearing...you will make a difference!

Not In Reston!
